

“The Iroquois is completely personal and unique. Right in the middle of things on this car-free island, it still retains a sense of solitude and remoteness, hence the perfect Location score. Airy rooms have cottage decor, and staff just treat you perfectly. American cuisine is served by candlelight at the Carriage House.”

*Condé Nast Traveler
– Gold List*

Awarded a perfect 100 location points by Condé Nast Traveler Magazine for its beautiful waterfront setting, the Hotel Iroquois offers forty-six guestrooms and suites. All are classically sophisticated and comfortable, with fine furnishings and vibrant colors. Victorian-style gardens and a sunbathing beach provide a summertime retreat while the lively streets of Mackinac are only one block away. A more delightful, convenient and picturesque setting would be difficult to find. Fine dining and cocktails can be enjoyed on property in the waterfront Carriage House dining room or al fresco on the veranda. Nightly entertainment at the piano bar.
